Applications with CV and presentation of your previous work to: Freundeskreis Otto Niemeyer-Holstein, Lüttenort e.V. c / o Atelier Otto Niemeyer-Holstein, Lüttenort, D-17459 Koserow, Tel./Fax (038375) 20213/22005.

The "XII. international plein-air in the studio Otto Niemeyer-Holstein "is in the tradition of the artist's exhibition in ONH's studio, which took place every two years:" Shore-beginning and end of the world "" Sea-Vision ", " Witnesses - Traces of Change ". The VII. "International Pleinair in the Atelier Otto-Niemeyer-Holstein" was dedicated to the topic "Painter Friends". The Pleinair 2010 was titled "Rider on the Big Bear - Otto Niemeyer-Holstein in Switzerland", the exhibition of the same name, which will be shown from April 11, 2010 to October 17, 2010 in the Neue Galerie in the Otto Niemeyer-Holstein workshop , Ninety years ago, Otto Niemeyer's artistic birth took place in Switzerland, mostly in Ascona on Lake Maggiore. For this reason, we want to IX. international plein air invite four Swiss and four German artists. In 2014, the theme continued with the X. Pleinair entitled "Contemporary Art from Switzerland".

A total of 87 artists from Argentina, Norway, Russia, Sweden, Lithuania, Poland, Switzerland, Great Britain, Chile, Iran, USA, Ukraine, Estonia, India and Germany visited the Atelier Niemeyer-Holstein since 1994.

For the twelfth time, artists are invited to Lüttenort, to the estate of painter Otto Niemeyer-Holstein. Located on the narrowest point of the island Usedom in the extreme north-east of the Federal Republic of Germany, this place is suitable to establish a connection between northern and southern Europe.

Otto Niemeyer-Holstein, who is regarded as one of the most important painters of the German Baltic Sea coast, emphasizes the connecting element through his work: the water. A trait of the painter was to seek contacts and exchange with other artists. For several years it was official ambassador on behalf of the art, as president of the Baltic biennale.

In November 2019, on the recommendation of the jury members, personal invitations will be sent home and abroad, and advertisements will be advertised in the press and in artists' associations. The application deadline is April 15, 2020.

The jury, chaired by Sabine Curio, will meet at the end of April. The applications will be eight artists for the XII. International Pleinair selected in the Otto Niemeyer-Holstein workshop in Lüttenort. The selection of artists will be announced in the press.

Artists, like Otto Niemeyer-Holstein, should be "admirers of the visible world" (Joachim John), figuratively working to be able to access the venue: the island of Usedom and the artists' estate - Lüttenort and Otto Niemeyer Holstein.

The conclusion of the plein air is celebrated with a "studio celebration" on Saturday, September 12, 2020 with a small retrospective, worthy of the work created in the 10 days in the Neue Galerie in the studio Otto Niemeyer-Holstein.

Yours sincerely
